2.7.1 Student Satisfaction Survey (SSS) on overall institutional performance (2022-23)

Assessment of the teaching quality and teaching environment is part of teaching learning and evaluation process. Student Satisfaction Survey assesses the direct discussion about quality, between staff and students. In order to assess the students' overall satisfaction with his or her educational experiences has been measured by questionnaire containing 10 questions including five-point parameter scale i.e., 5 for Excellent, 4 for Good, 3 for Average, 2 for Below Average and 1 for Poor. Questionnaire was filled by 100 students of both Arts and Commerce faculties and their responses were recorded and analyzed. It indicates that-

- Approximately 83% students gave Excellent and Good remark to all the questions
- Average remark was given by approximately 12.5% students
- Negligible students gave Below average and Poor remark

Following suggestions and feedbacks have been received from SSS

- 1) Library timing should be increased for more reading facility.
- 2) Ground should be made available at morning time also.
- 3) Extra classes are need for English and Computer practical Classes.
